Good afternoon Robert:

Just to confirm our conversations, my client is agreeable to moving the case from the June PC to the July PC to allow for additional time to coordination of the acreages/legal descriptions and the advertising language for the various applications .

Can you please confirm that the movement to the July 10, 2024 PC hearing will not affect the BoCC Transmittal Hearing of August 6, 2024? Assuming optimistically of course, the adoption would be in October 2024 as dictated by the speed of review by the DoC.

Regards,

Bart
