Born in 1954, Steve Kalogridis has always called Winter Haven, Florida, his home. He attended the University of Florida and graduated in 1977. He immediately entered the securities business in 1978 at A. G. Edwards and went on to work at Wells Fargo Securities before entering private practice, where he has been serving various clients for over 25 years.

Steve is an accomplished financial consultant specializing in capital markets, their formation and performance, and more recently the development, implementation, and management of multifamily apartment projects. Professionally, Steve currently serves as a Managing Partner at Silver Properties of Winter Haven, LLC, as well as Strategic Planning consultant with Six/Ten, LLC. Steve is also active in his community serving on the Board of Directors for Main Street Winter Haven, the Ritz Theatre, and the Boys and Girls Club of Polk County. He is an active member of Heartland Community Church and volunteers as an AWANA leader working with 3rd graders.
